(Pre-Year end “Draft” Profit and Loss, prior to adjustments, attached)

At present there are no significant Expenses or Revenues that are unanticipated prior to 12/31/2016

Comments
We are currently expensing all costs. This year we budgeted for a total review and upgrade of the IYAMN website, as of 11/13/2016 these expenses have totaled $2,072.97, funded by cash reserves in the IYAMN checking account. This has been substantially completed. A larger organization may amortize this as a capital expense over time.

Programming has included Workshops budgeted at breakeven and two Yoga Day events for members at a loss. Total programming has generated a loss exceeding original projections.

Membership revenues have been compatible with expectations.

At the January Board meeting of each year the Board has made a contribution to the Bellur Trust at a minimum of 10% of the IYAMN unencumbered checking account balance. The Board will discuss that this be increased to reduce the IYAMN balance to no more than $5000.

Next year the Board may budget additional legal and accounting expense related to the revision and updating of the IYAMN Articles of Corporation and administration. This would reduce a greater amount to Bellur.

Closing
IYAMN is registered with the IRS and the State of Minnesota as a 501c3 Non-Profit operating under Section 4947(a)(1) Trust as a Private Foundation.
All disbursement of IYAMN funds are by;
Check, requiring two signatures by current officers
By vendor automatic withdrawals for licensing and regular payments
By debit card in possession of Treasurer with all draws showing on Monthly Bank Statement.
Updated financials are presented at each Board meeting for review and approval.

IYAMN is at present, a financially viable and solid organization
Respectively submitted,
